ABOUT US

Working in partnership with performers, talent agencies and productions companies in Michigan and surrounding states, MET Group is connected with the high end and dedicated performance professionals you need to make the live entertainment at your special event remarkable.

Whether it's upscale corporate events, private parties, long term residencies, public festivals, custom living installations or brand activation through live entertainment – our network of fully insured professional performers and curators are a perfect fit. Equipped with a wide variety of skills to help execute your next vision, right in house! Classy and elegant, fun and exciting - or a mix of both! From acts to costumes and accessories, we strive to curate the perfect entertainment ambiance to fit your unique event.

MEET THE FOUNDER

Natasha Dean

Natasha holds over 15 years of experience working at a Management and Director level in the events and production industry. With work history in nonprofit, corporate, private, long term entertainment residencies and large scale events, you can trust that your event needs are in confident hands.

She has a Masters Degree in Organizational Leadership, and understands the vast multi level business strategies necessary to execute a memorable, professional and profound event and entertainment experience – no matter what your cause.

She left her corporate career to pursue a love for performance arts. Now, with significant experience as an event curator, performance artist, and business manager - along with strong and diverse networks formed along the way - she strives to bring the best of these worlds together. Supporting fellow creators in bringing their dreams to life; from the inside out.
